St. Chad's Church The people of God

‘.....you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood’ 1 Peter 2:5

At long last. I'm speaking of our church building works of course. And really it's not quite that bad. I have shown a PowerPoint (The first of many) of works that had been taking place behind the closed doors of our church, but now those works have burst out before our very eyes. The new brick-built vestry rising out of the ashes of 'Al's Shack' visible at the rear, and they're doing something at the front??? Or we've got giant squirrels digging it up. Trees gone and diggers in – it warms the cockles of our hearts, doesn't it?

And if I'm honest, it's hard to keep perspective. We want to be excited. I want to be excited, and why not? A beautifully refurbished church. Better heating. A new lighting system. A brand new 'Lady Chapel' and flexible, comfortable seating. A sparkling new 'Coffee Shop' extending across our frontage and a well equipped kitchen to service all of that. No more coats and scarves needed in the winter with everyone drawing pictures in their breath as it freezes mid-air. Gone are the days of catching a chill in the pews, we're changing for the better. 'And it's about time' I hear from the voices of those who had suffered long enough.

But it's not about buildings. Even lovely ones, clean and fresh and well decked out. And that's the perspective we need to keep. Church, 'Ecclesia' for those longing to have a little Greek in our Chadderboxes, is all about people rather than bricks and mortar. It's about the people of God, coming together to serve God and their fellow townsfolk. Bishop Peter Hill's talks to us on our Weekend Away about 'Paroikia', (more Greek) translated as 'Parish' and meaning those who are outside of the safety of the city walls, hits the nail on the head. The church is literally the hands, feet, mouth and heart of God at work in its community.

I hope that you are excited about the prospects of a 'new' church. We should be and it's going to be great. But I hope that you're excited too at the potential and possibilities that 'new' church means for you. I hope and pray that you've started to think about how you might fit in to the 'ecclesia' – the people of God brought together in the Holy Spirit to reach out beyond our city walls. Will you join a team helping children and families? Or maybe you want to do something to help those in poverty? Maybe your skills are helping with the older folks in our community or administration? How is God calling you?

Paul is clear, we are living stones that are being brought together to form and to be God's holy house in Chadwell Heath. His hands, his feet, his voice and his heart. And that's exciting stuff so let's get excited.

Martin.

*You also, like living stones,
are being built into a spiritual house
to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.*

We still urgently need volunteers. When you are relying on just a few people and are asking them over and over again to do jobs around the church, they become tired and burnt out! It would be wonderful if we could spread the workload to give other people a bit of a break. We are always looking for volunteers to take part in Sunday Services; we especially need people to read and deliver prayers during services, welcome and to help with refreshments after services.

If you are available during the week, there are always volunteer opportunities—MCC, Coffee Shop, building maintenance - and we would welcome you with open arms!! Many of the jobs are simple and not time consuming—there are no qualifications needed, just a servant heart! Please let the office know if you can help.
